NEW THIS YEAR

ART DISTRICT AND CHILLZONE LAUNCH

SunFest will no longer feature a traditional juried art show, and instead patrons will experience and enjoy art in an innovative way.

The Art District sponsored by Florida Lottery will have an exciting new layout featuring live artist demonstrations and performances, unique interactive art installations, and a variety of consumer friendly goods from more than 60 artists, crafters, and vendors. SunFest is partnering with the Arc of Palm Beach County, Armory Arts Center, Dreyfoos School of the Arts, Education Gallery Group, and Halo Technologies.

The ChillZone which will be located at Trinity Park and will be designed for grabbing a respite with family and friends. Patrons will be invited to lay in the Eagles Nest Outfitters Lotus Lounge, or sample wine from the Dark Horse Wine Container Bar, and take part in traditional lawn games such as corn hole and giant Jenga.

CULINARY UPDATES AT SUNFEST

Building on the success of last year, SunFest will again partner with the Palm Beach Food & Wine Festival to provide some new additions for dining at SunFest. The North and South food areas will be updated and have their own unique brand. The Fueling Station will be located in the north end of the venue, by the Clematis Street Gate and will feature food and drinks to get you going and keep you moving. The Diner will be located in what was formerly the South Food Court by the JetBlue stage. This dining experience will feature a 50's themed pop-up diner serving all American cuisine.
